Major 2023 Initiatives

STRATEGIC PLAN PILLARS: ADVOCATE, COLLABORATE, AND ELEVATE

Planning high-quality professional development (courses, webinars, and other continuing education) to maximize our reach to our members, while right-sizing for a post-COVID world that includes changes in consumer consumption and preferences.

Hosting the APTA Pediatrics Education Summit in June 2023 to update the essential core competencies and ensure that they continue to effectively guide professional pediatric physical therapy education and align with ongoing efforts across the profession toward excellence and competency-based education.

Hosting the APTA Pediatrics Research Summit in October 2023 to focus on the contemporary topic of precision rehabilitation research for children with neuromotor conditions.

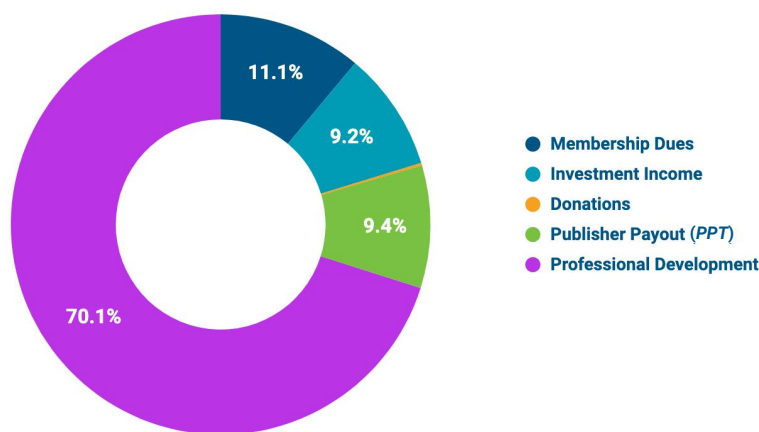

Advancing the integration and expectation of diversity, equity, and inclusion throughout all APTA Pediatrics activities.

Continuing to develop additional member resources through the Journal, fact sheets, networking opportunities, PCS preparation, while launching new initiatives, including journal clubs, communities of practice, new branding, and more!

Letter from the President

Mary Jane Rapport, PT, DPT, PHD, FAPTA

Since February 6, 2023, many APTA Academy of Pediatric Physical Therapy members have been grieving the loss of President Cindy Miles. APTA Pediatrics, including its volunteers and Board of Directors, accomplished so much during the past six years under Cindy's leadership.

The Board continues to work hard on behalf of all members, and is committed to several major initiatives for 2023 including supporting members from all practice settings and patient populations in education, clinical practice, and research. As we shift into the second year of our strategic plan (2022-2025), it comes with the acknowledgement of challenges since the start of COVID, that we could not have anticipated a few years ago. Thank you for granting me this opportunity to serve as a representative of APTA Pediatrics and as your leader.

Together, we will continue to serve as the primary advocates for children and families within our profession—I hope to fulfill these roles ably, humbly, and graciously working with YOU and for you.
